Liberty Lodge is available to all holders of the South Atlantic Medal and their families and the families of those killed in action.

It boasts a large communal kitchen/diner to prepare and enjoy your meals, utility room and a spacious lounge, which overlooks Stanley Harbour.

The Lodge is a self-catering facility with 3 twin rooms, all with en-suite bathrooms and a self-contained twin bed flat.

The Lodge has a homely atmosphere and all guests are made to feel welcome. It is also maintained to the highest of standards.

To book accommodation at Liberty Lodge please send your request to lodge.manager@cwimail.fk. All booking enquires must be made via email. You will need to inform us of the dates you wish to be accommodated at the Lodge.

You will receive an email confirming that a provisional booking has been made, if space is available. Only upon receipt of this email may you use the address of Liberty Lodge for the duration of your visit to the Falkland Islands. Your booking will be confirmed once we receive confirmation that your flights have been applied for.
